ABOUT STEPHANIE FOX: NEWCASTLE & TRAVEL

I'm Steph, a blogger and social media manager with a passion for travel and my home city of Newcastle. When I'm at home, you'll find content on bars, restaurants and local events. When travelling, I enjoy long haul trips, European breaks and weekend getaways. I'm no backpacker, or long term traveller, I prefer a nice hotel, and combining tourist activities with local authentic culture. I always say I don't travel I go on holiday, but so do the majority of people who work full time looking to make the most of annual leave and weekends. This blog provides genuine recommendations based on my personal experiences, thought out itineraries and accommodation reviews.

Testimonials

A great experience working with Steph. Both professional and a pleasure to work with, resulting in The Morpeth apartment getting great exposure and increased bookings via her travel blog and published articles. The photographs were from a different perspective to the ones we had and have been so useful for our listing
